DG Shipping Order No. 16 of 2014

Sub: Payment of welfare fund contribution by Recruitment & Placement of seafarers (RPS) providers – req.

Comprehensive & robust measures for the maintenance & promotion of the welfare of seafarers are provisioned for in the Maritime Labour Convention [MLC], 2006 as amended. The responsibility of ship owners for meeting the financial consequences of sickness/injury/death of seafarers occurring in the course of or connection with their employment onboard vessels is covered in Regulation 4.2 of the MLC. Its Regulation 4.5 outlines the social security measures expected/informed to be extended to seafarers.

2. The Government of India's, gazette notification GSR33 (E) dated 16.01.14, is an effort in the aforesaid direction, with a view to create an effective corpus for the launch of various welfare schemes for seafarers. The said notification warrants RPS service providers, to ensure contribution of stipulated amounts as 'welfare fund contribution' for every seaman below the rank of an officer & engaged by such a RPS services provider either in an Indian flag or foreign flag vessel. Such welfare fund contribution are mandated in that notification, to be remitted to the 'Seafarers' Welfare Fund Society' (SWFS), which is a charitable trust managed by the Govt. of India.

3. Reckoning the long sought and genuine requirement for addressing the felt need for establishing social securities for seafarers, the SWFS has initiated considered efforts in expanding the ambit/constituency of its extant welfare schemes and introducing more such schemes for the benefit of seafarers. Apart from the profile of its existing schemes, the following three new schemes have been introduced by SWFS forward that end;

3.1: Survival Benefit Scheme (for seafarers).

3.2: Invalidity Benefit Scheme (for seafarers).

3.3: Maternity Benefit Scheme (only for lady seafarers).

4. Outline of these schemes as introduced by the SWFS are enclosed herewith (Annexure(s) I to III: respectively: 7 pages in toto). The eligibility conditions etc., under these schemes may please be perusal on the website www.dgshipping.nic.in of the DGS, GOI.

5. The welfare fund contribution, as remitted by the RPS service providers for an engagement of seafarers by them on board Indian flag and foreign flag vessels, are to be utilized by the SWFS for purpose of the said welfare schemes. The contributions become payable from the second quarter of the current calendar year i.e. from 01.04.14.
6. The RPS service providers registered under the MS [RPS] Rules 2005, are requested to please note these initiatives of the Maritime Administration for introducing new welfare schemes and also bring to the notice of the ship owners/employers from whom they receive the said contributions to be deposited by the RPS providers to the SWFS and also to the attention of the seafarers engaged by them.
